

FEBRUARY 2018

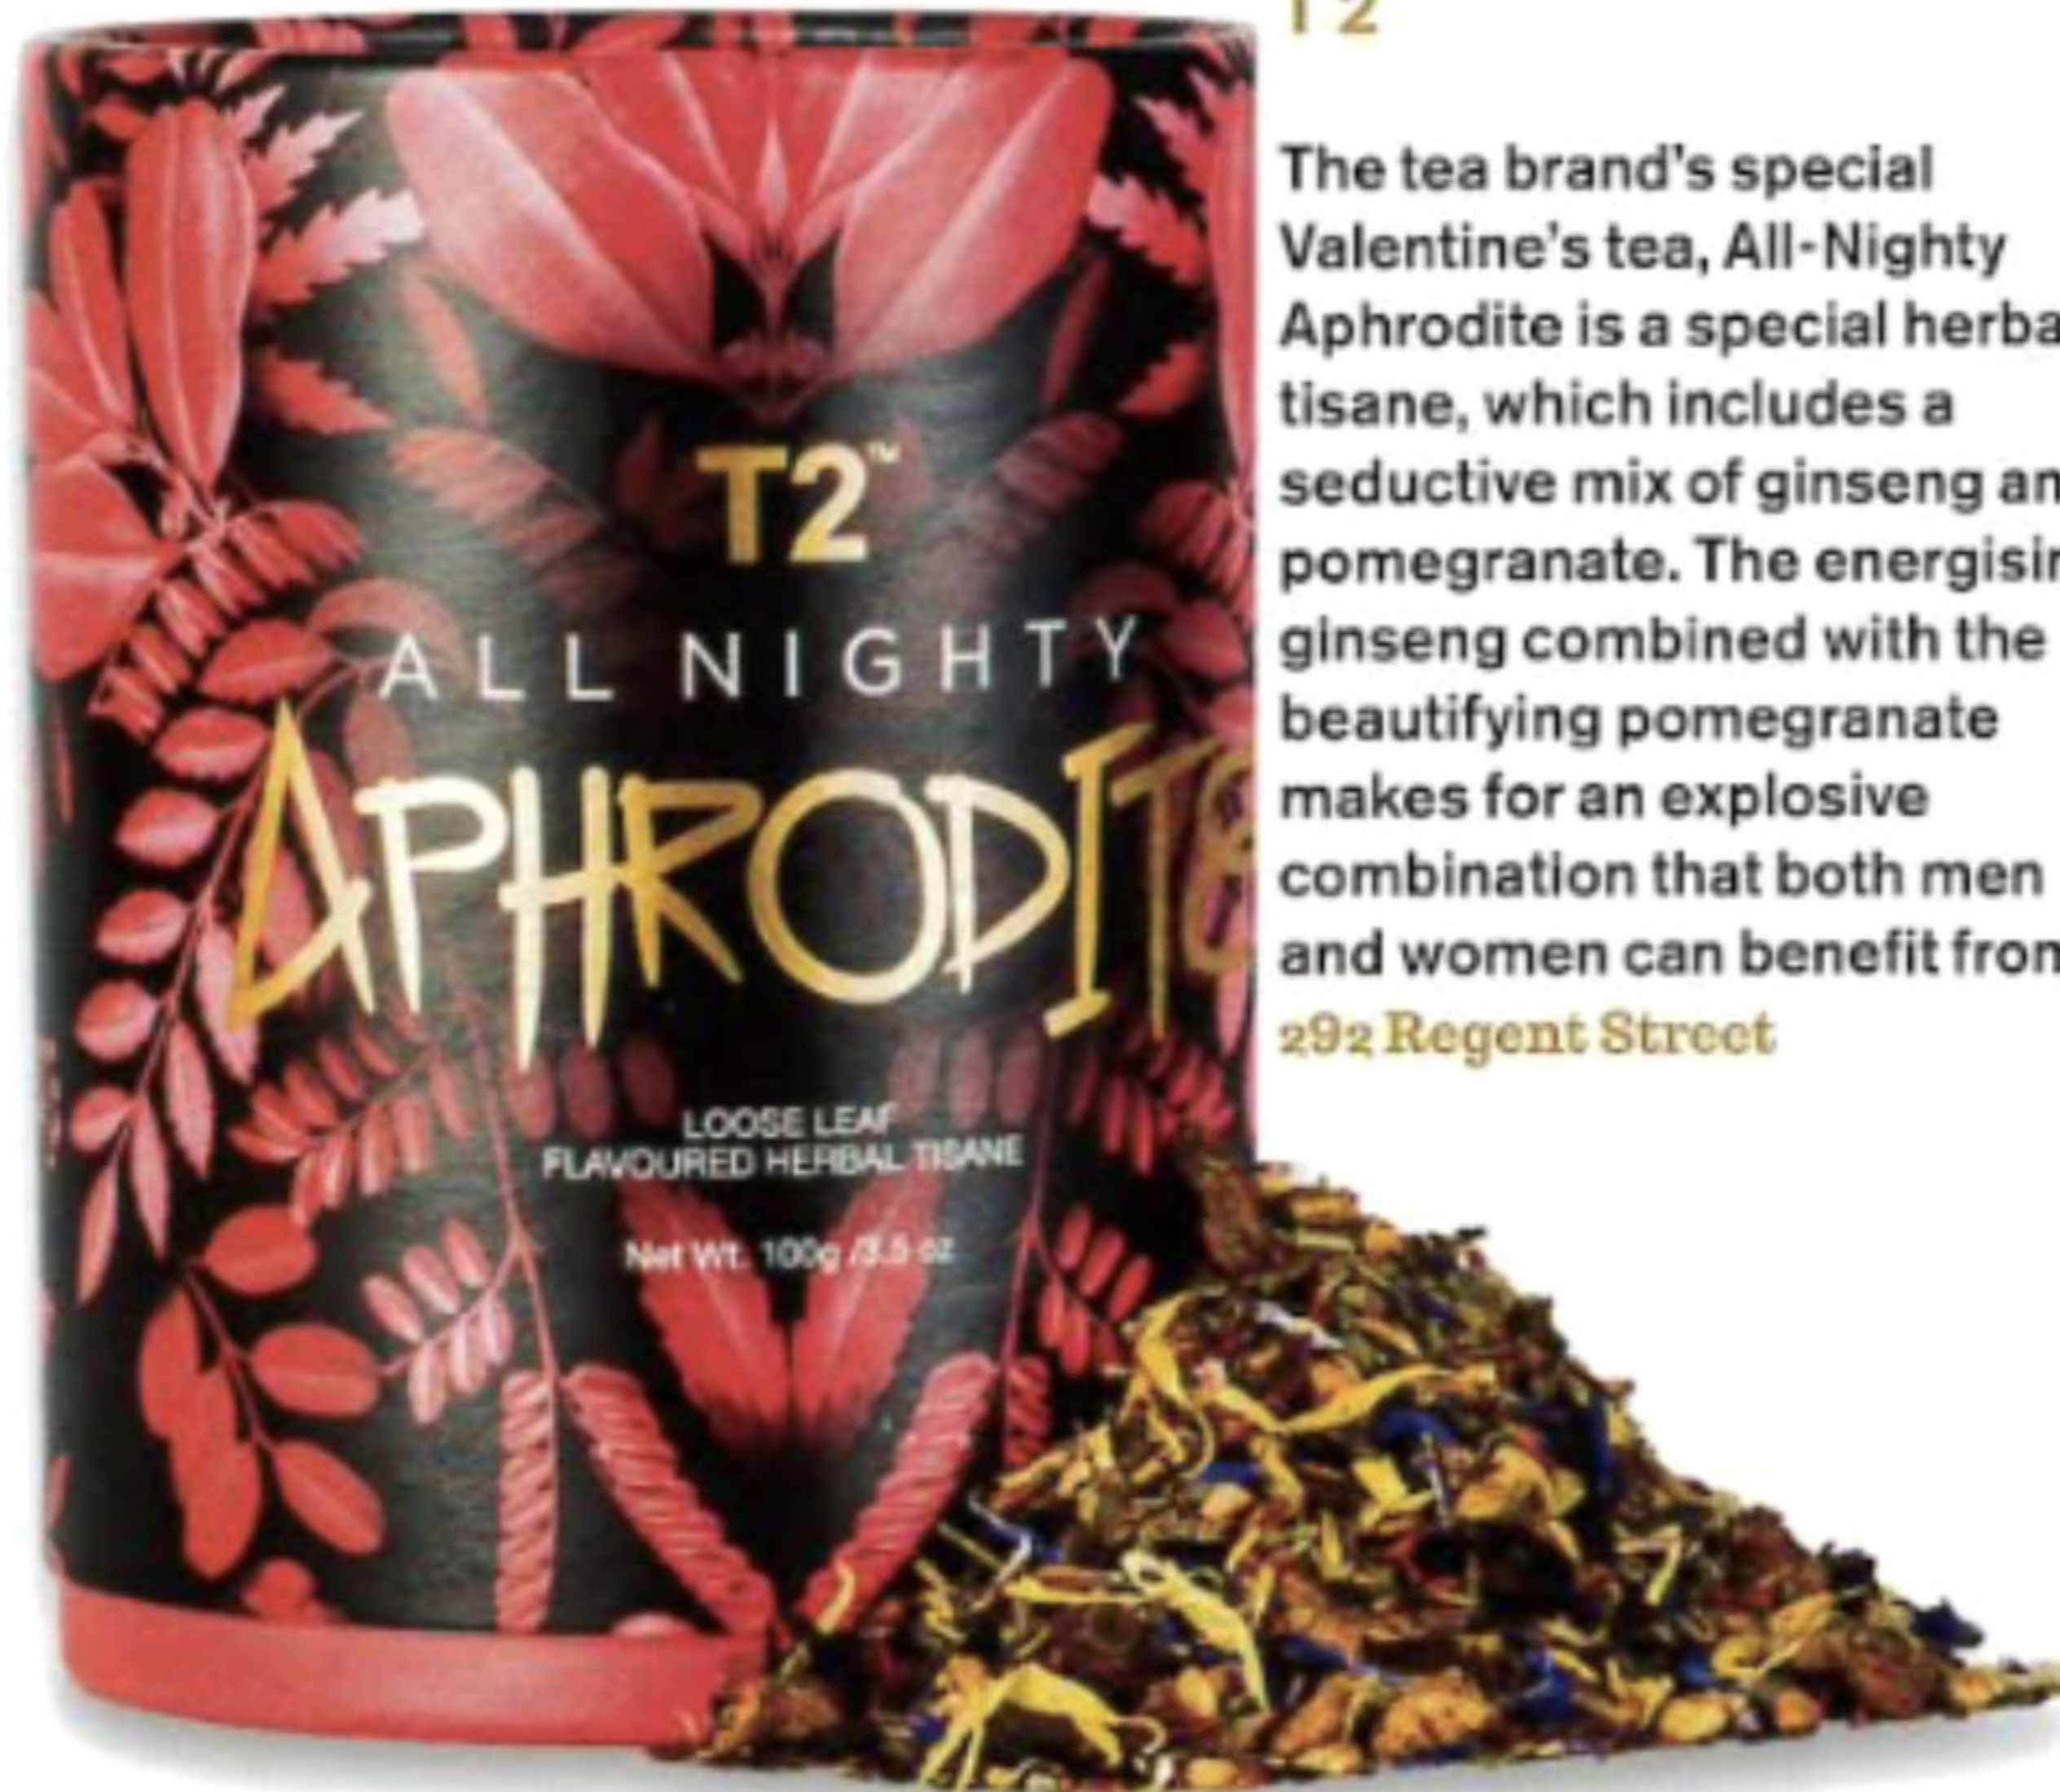

mayfair times

*EASTERN PROMISE: Huishan Zhang leads our China issue
PLUS: Community Awards winners, and inside The London Library*

TOM FORD

A homage to lips – that includes kissing – Boys and Girls is the ideal gift to spoil any woman this Valentine's Day. Mariko, £29, is a particular favourite with its striking brick-red shade. It will provide six hours of full coverage while still feeling moisturised.

Selfridges, 400 Oxford Street

T2

The tea brand's special Valentine's tea, All-Night Aphrodite is a special herbal tisane, which includes a seductive mix of ginseng and pomegranate. The energising ginseng combined with the beautifying pomegranate makes for an explosive combination that both men and women can benefit from.

292 Regent Street

PS
I LOVE
YOU

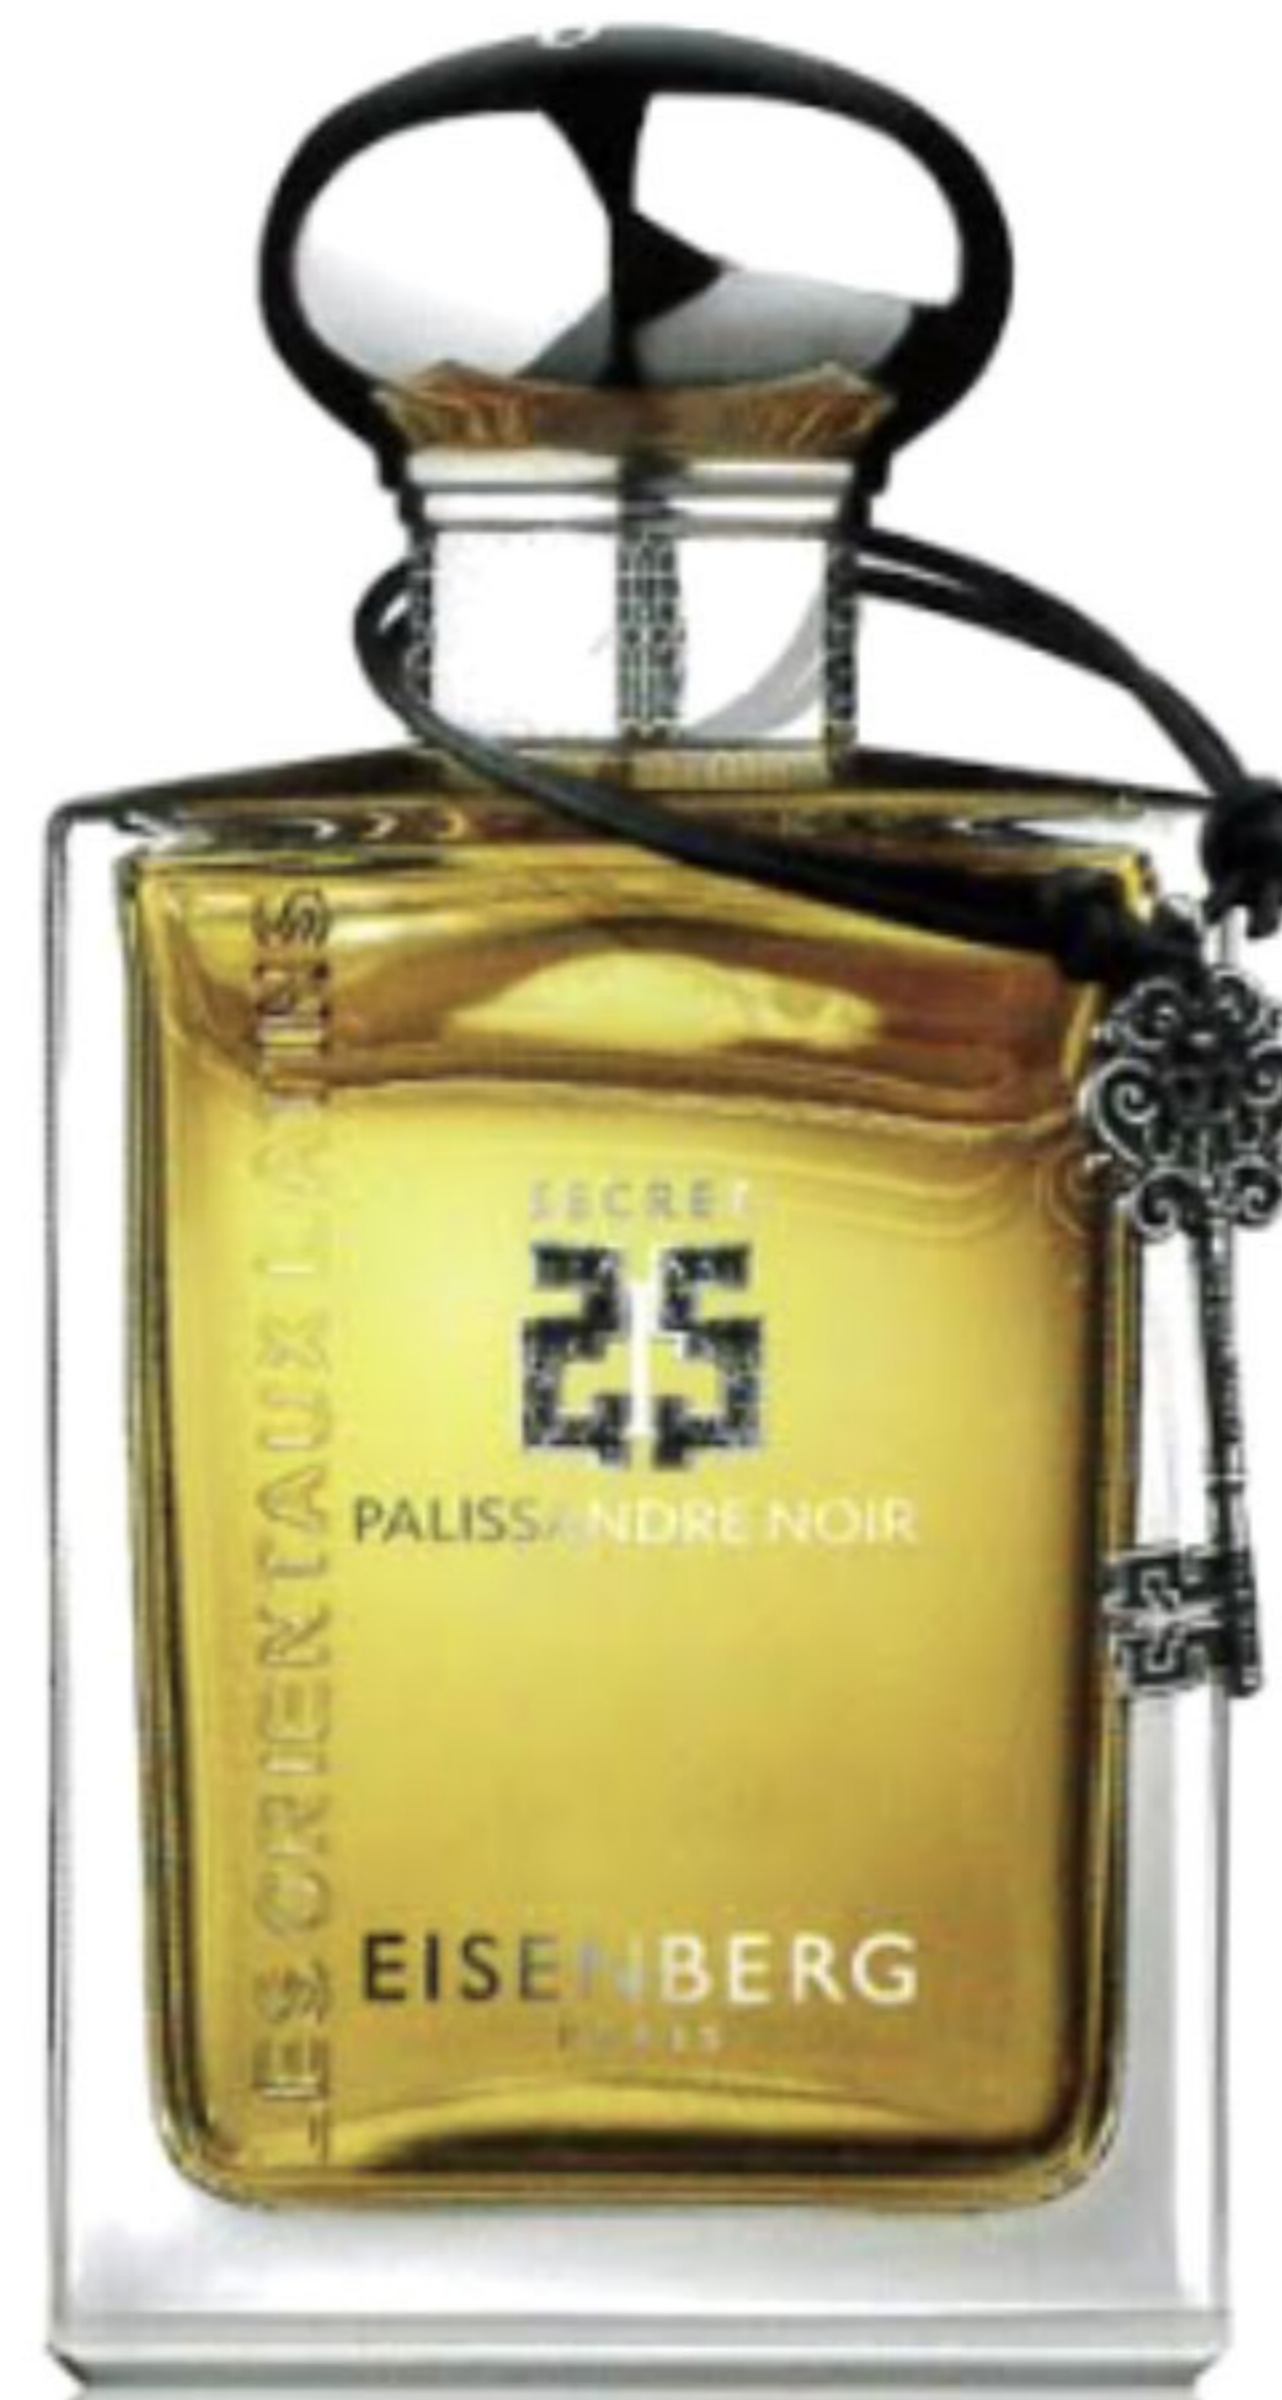

NOTHING SAYS "I LOVE YOU"
LIKE A BEAUTY-FULL SURPRISE.
BY SOPHIA CHARALAMBOUS

JOHN FRIEDA

For the girl that has everything, a Glossy Girl semi-permanent hair shine service is the ideal Valentine's surprise. There is a coloured gloss, £50, for those who want to emphasise their hair's rich or cool tones, or a clear gloss, £30, which is completed in just 30 minutes and lasts up to 20 washes.

4 Aldford Street

EISENBERG PARIS

The Palissandre Noir Secret, £149 for 100ml, will transport you to a secluded hot forest with its lead note of palisander wood. This heady scent is combined with saffron and bergamot, sandalwood and cistus, perfect for a man with a mysterious soul.

Harrods, 87-135 Brompton Road